THE DEL-HI

In remembrance, we the senior class of 1960, wish to dedicate this page to a former classmate, George Freeworth.

*The 1960
Del-Hi*

We, the Class of 1960, proudly present our edition of the Del-Hi. As we look through its pages, many happy memories will be recalled.

We the Senior Class do affectionately dedicate the 1960 Del-Hi to our beloved and respected business education teacher.

Miss Golda Nau was born in Mt. Blanchard, Ohio which is near Findlay. She was graduated from Ada High School in 1920.

In the fall of 1920, Miss Nau began her teaching career at an eight grade country school in Deleware Township. After teaching there for two years, she moved to another eight grade one room school in Jackson Township. She taught there for two years also.

In September 1924 Miss Nau moved to Delta where she has taught continuously for thirty-five years.

Miss Nau graduated from the University of Cincinnati in June of 1939 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Education. She also attended Bliss College, Bowling Green State University, Findlay College, and Ohio Northern University.

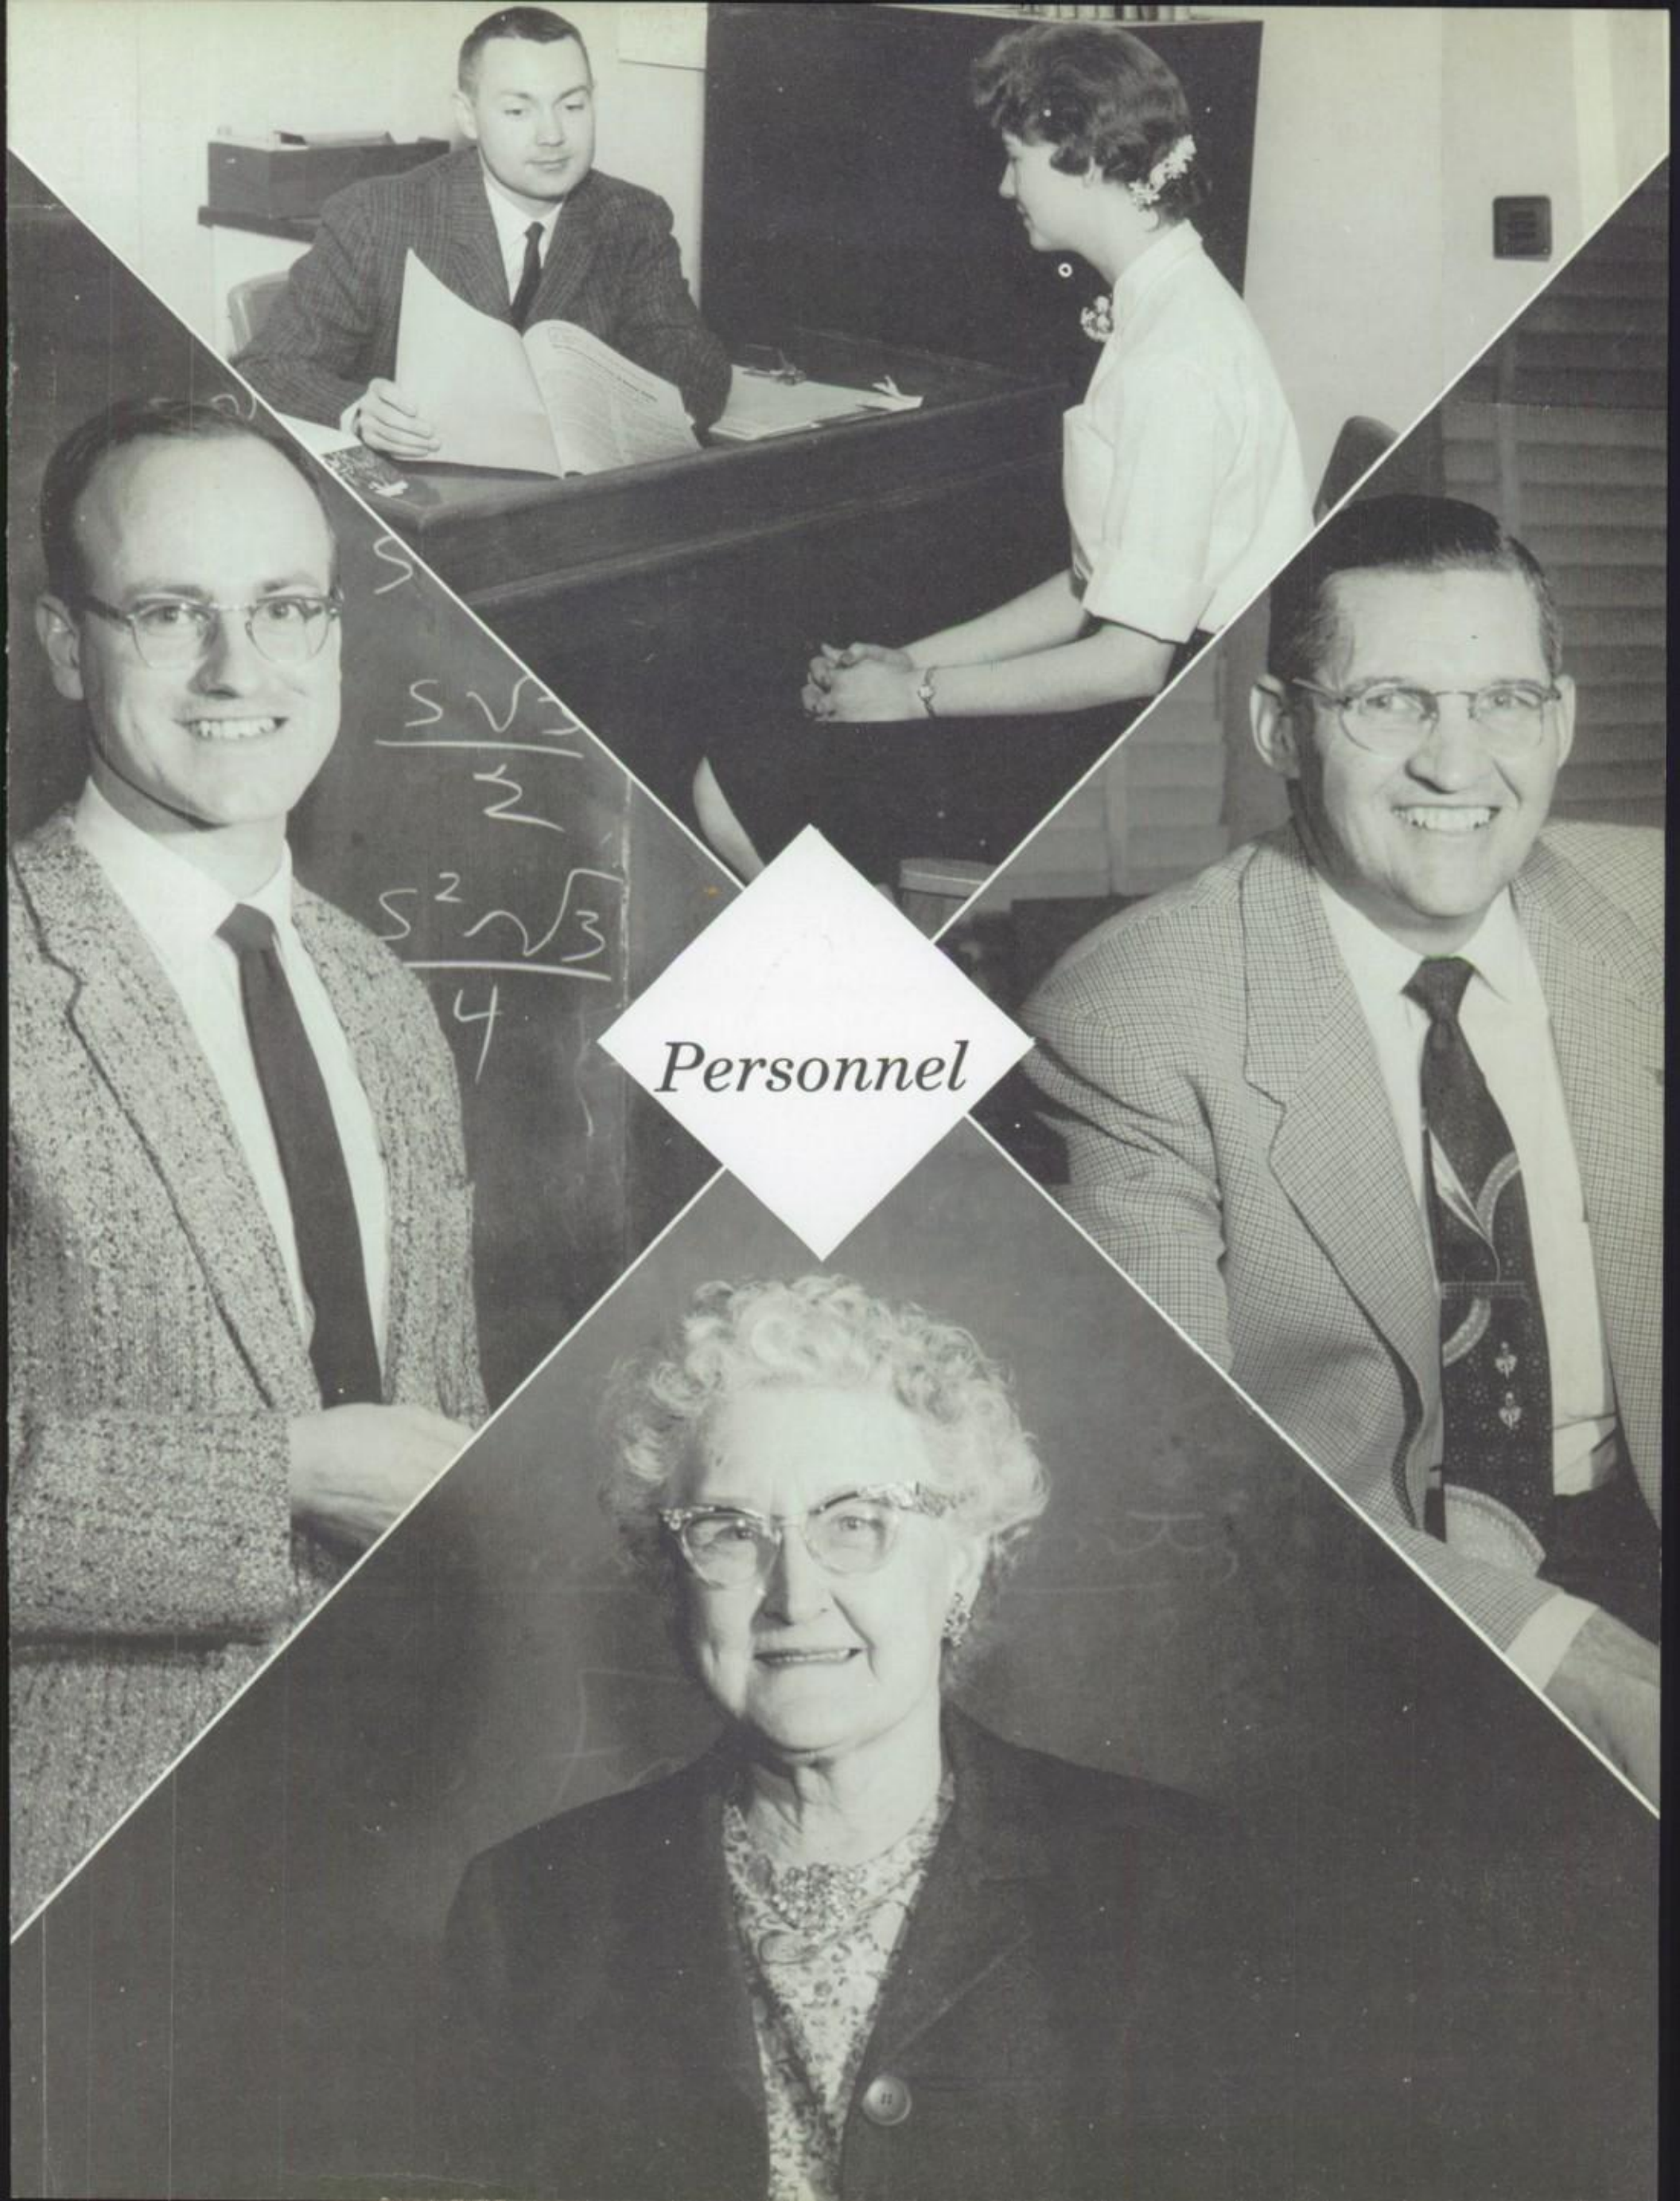

On March 8, 1952, Miss Nau became Mrs. Vern Wisner. This posed somewhat of a problem for her students who had become so used to calling her Miss Nau.

Mrs. Wisner is a well liked and highly respected teacher. She has always shown concern for her students, and has been more than willing to help them when necessary.

Mrs. Wisner set high standards for her business education students and expected each to work to the best of her ability. Because of this, many employers throughout Northwestern Ohio have sought the services of students who received their secretarial training under Mrs. Wisner.

We are sorry that Mrs. Wisner is leaving, but we are grateful for the many years of service that she has unselfishly given to the students of Delta.

Class Prophecy

This is your world news reporter, Marilyn Reighard; the year is 1980. One day several months ago as I entered my office, my secretary Elaine Burgin said that the "boss" wanted to see me. My boss is Richard Hite, editor-in-chief of that world famous magazine Squint. He asked me to do a story on that "old gang of ours", the Class of 1960.

When I went home that night, I was at a loss as to where to start. I turned on the television and there, much to my surprise, was Jim Spiess, now known as the new Jack Paar. There were some other familiar faces on his show that night - Harold Schlatter and his red-hot trombone and that new singing sensation, Hugh Gillespie. The commercial was presented by Suzanne Bratton who had just taken over for Betty Crocker.

The next morning I contacted Ted Short, owner and operator of the "Long-Short Airlines," about reservations for a trip around the world. When I boarded the plane for my trip, I noticed that Penny Jackson was one of the stewardesses.

My first stop was to visit my old friend Diane Norris, who was teaching advanced calculus at Annapolis. From there I went to Washington D. C. to see Pat Neorr who pushed the buttons on an electronic brain for a secret government project. When I returned to my room in the Continental Hotel, which was run by Bob Thatcher, I read in the paper that Janet Reed was running for president with Kelsie Hofacre as vice president. Janet said that if she were elected, she would have Sheila Harris redecorate the White House in green and white.

From Washington, I went to Moscow where I saw our magazine's foreign correspondent Larry Kiss-el. He told me that Tom Nofzinger was the United States ambassador to Russia.

I then went to Egypt to see Ken Keller who was busy building a bridge over the Suez Canal. I also saw Doyle Tuckerman who was teaching English to the Egyptians.

In the middle of darkest Africa I met my safari leader, Harlan Shaw. He told me that Dick Merrill had just taken over the position of chief witch doctor. I then went to visit the plantation of John Wachtmann who had made a fortune raising cabbages in the Congo. I also came across Sharon Dohr who was busy teaching the natives the proper way to boil white hunters.

My next stop was in Hawaii to visit Darlene Loar who was teaching the hula to the natives. From there I went to California to see Mark McQuillin, the coach of the Los Angeles Rams. I also saw Dick Echler, one of the stars of the team. I then went to Hollywood to see Ken Pfaff, a movie agent who had just signed a contract for his two leading stars Mary Gadzialski and Hal Shaw. They had just received the main parts in Dale Mattin's new novel "The Return of Macbeth." I also came across Pat Gunn, now famous as a hair stylist for the stars.

My next stop was at Tyrannis Terrace, Terry Spire's night club in Las Vegas. I was surprised to see Janice Morr who was the featured dancer at the floor show.

On the way home I stopped in at Mayo Clinic to see the world famous brain surgeon, Mary Ann Hallow. I watched her perform an operation assisted by Donna Emans.

My next stop was at the Indianapolis Speedway where John Stewart, assisted by his able mechanic Roger Harmon, was breaking all speed records with a car which he had built himself.

I then went to Cape Canaveral to see Harold Bell, a famous atomic scientist, and then on to the Everglades to see Kenton Travis who was busy developing new uses for Flamingo eggs.

After this exhausting trip, I went straight to my psychiatrist Margie Reichert who agreed with me that this whole silly story isn't worth telling.

Junior Class Trip

On Sunday, May 31, 1959, forty eager juniors boarded the train at Toledo bound for Washington, D. C. As our chaperones, we selected Mr. and Mrs. Schindler, Mr. David Steger, and Miss Charlotte Eicher.

After a restful (?) night on the train, we arrived in Washington bright and early the next morning. We boarded sight-seeing buses and then we visited the Washington Monument, Arlington Cemetery, and Mount Vernon. After checking into the Continental Hotel, we went on a twilight tour of some of the memorials. We also visited the Washington Airport.

Tuesday morning we again rose bright and early. (As far as we were concerned, we were not too bright and it was much too early). That day, we visited the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, and the Capitol. We also were shown a very good example of the rain in Washington, because on that particular day, it rained, and rained and rained. On Tuesday, we had a free night. Most of us went to see Cinerama, but a few brave "ducks" went on a slightly soggy moonlight cruise, and some went to an amusement park.

On Wednesday, we went to Annapolis to view the Naval Academy (and the midshipmen). In the afternoon, we wearily boarded the train for home. The trip home was much more quiet than the one before.

We arrived home Thursday morning, glad to be home, but sad that the trip which we had looked forward to for so long was over so quickly. We all had fun and will never forget this great experience in our lives.

Junior

This year the Juniors have been busy raising money for their class trip. They have sponsored dances, a turkey raffle, a car wash, and one of the highlights of their year--the Junior Class Play. They have also been busy planning the Junior-Senior Prom.

One of the major highlights of the band's annual trip to Pemberville, Ohio. Here, band competition in street marching, playing, and drill work is held. For the fourth consecutive year, the band took first place.

Being in band isn't all hard work. This year, on October 17, 1959, the band traveled to Ann Arbor, Michigan to view the University of Michigan-Northwestern football game. They also watched the Michigan Band as they practiced for their band show.

During the concert season, the band worked hard to maintain the fine record which they have attained during the last few years.

This year the Delta F. H. A. Chapter's activities were led by their president, Janice Morr and advisor, Mrs. Burris. Some of these activities were: F. F. A. - F. H. A. Dance, Hobo Day, Daddy Date Nite, the traditional parent daughter banquet and a dinner honoring the senior members.

They also had an ice-cream social, concessions, and many other money raising projects. A number of the girls worked on their Junior, Chapter, and State Homemaker Degrees.

This year the chapter selected Bill Siebel as their F. H. A. King.

The chapter mothers this year were Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Kistner, Mrs. Morr and Mrs. Onweller.

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization whose purpose is to educate rural youth and promote the farming industry. There are thousands of local chapters such as Delta's in the national F.F.A. This year, the local chapter functioned under the leadership of John Wachtmann, president, and Mr. Burris, advisor.

One of the outstanding events in F.F.A. is the selection of the Chapter Sweetheart. This year, Janet Krauss was selected. Another event is the annual dance with the F.H.A.

There are also many activities in which the local chapter competes with the other chapters of the county. One of these is the parliamentary procedure contest, and another is the F.F.A. district livestock judging contest.

Among the individual contests, the outstanding one is the public speaking contest in which the Delta chapter often participates.

The G. A. A. has been very busy this year. Not only have they been competing among themselves, but they have been playing basketball and volleyball with other schools. Under the leadership of Mrs. McFarland, the girls have always shown good sportsmanship and fair play.

In addition to their athletic activities, the G. A. A. proved to be an active and hardworking organization. They added spirit to the football games by decorating the goal posts, and sold candy at both the football and basketball games.

The G. A. A. has a point system by which the girls may earn an emblem, a letter, a pin, according to the number of points they earn. By serving on committees, playing on teams, helping with refreshments, and various other ways, many girls received awards this year.

On November 20, 1959, the Junior Class presented the comedy, "The Boarding House Reach," under the direction of Mr. David Steger and student directors, Patti Johnson and Janet Van Doren.

For many years, thirteen-year old Wilbur Maxwell had wanted a bicycle, but he couldn't persuade Mom and Pop to get him one. When Mom and Pop go away for a week-long business trip, Wilbur gets an idea. He'll make his own money, and buy his own bicycle.

He decides to open up a boarding-house right in his own home. Into the paper goes the ad, and that night the whole Maxwell house is crawling with people. From there on out, it's one big mess after another.

On April 8, 1960, the Senior Class presented a mystery-comedy, "Bull in a China Shop".

The "Bull" is Detective Dennis O'Finn, handsome, middle-aged bachelor. The "china shop" is a houseful of batty spinsters, all of them in love with O'Finn. But he pays no attention to them, until one of them turns up dead! The pixilated ladies really serve a cup of tea that is good to the last drop, especially when they want to get rid of a rival for the affections of O'Finn. He solves the murders all right. (There are several, just to make sure he stays around). But in a knock-out of a switch ending, O'Finn realizes that even though he has solved the mystery, he has not solved his basic problem. He is just too darned attractive to the weaker sex!

On October 30, the Delta Panthers were hosts to the Napoleon football team. Even though it was a wet, rainy night, it didn't dampen the spirit of the crowd as their 1959 Homecoming Queen, Miss Mary Gadzialski was escorted onto the field.

The climax of the evening was the coronation following the game. Last year's homecoming queen, Miss Sandy Boulis, placed the crown on the queen's head; then the royal couple descended the throne to lead the grand march.

This year Delta did not have a very successful season, winning one and losing eight, although they played better than some of the scores indicated.

Delta played one of its best defensive games of the season against Montpelier, but a seventy-nine yard T. D. run handed them their fifth loss. In the homecoming game with Napoleon, Delta played a good offensive game, but eight fumbles, and the larger opponents gave them another defeat. The last game of the season with Swanton was played in the snow on a very muddy field. Delta completely dominated play and won their first game of the season.

Delta lost only seven seniors and, with a year's experience, should have a successful season next year.

The Varsity Basketball team completed the season with a four won, thirteen lost record. Although their record was not too impressive, they played good basketball at times.

The panthers started off the season by beating Springfield Local, 46-43. After losing the next four, Delta broke back into the winning column with a 54-50 victory over Lyons and a 38-37 victory over Wauseon.

In the last game of the season, after losing seven straight, Delta defeated Liberty Center, in their best game of the season with a 71-68 victory.

The track team, under the coaching of Mr. Adkins, will be looking forward to another fine season. They will be defending the county title, and also will be working hard toward a good standing in the district meet, again this year. Out of a group of thirteen lettermen, there will be seven returning.

Delta had a fine season last year, winning the county very easily, and placing third and fourth in the district and league meets respectively.

This year should also be a very successful season, as Larry Kissel, who tied for first and Mark McQuillin, who placed fifth in the high jump will be back. Also returning who won letters last year and should do a fine job again are as follows: Cliff Foremen, Jim McDonnall, Ted Short, Roger Morr, and Roger Markey.

The baseball team, under the coaching of Mr. Rollins, are looking forward to another fine season.

Although they are losing seven lettermen, there are five well-experienced lettermen returning and some good prospective boys to take over.

In the NWOAL last year, Delta ended with a 3-3 record and a 5-4 overall record. In the County Tournament last year, Delta lost to Pettisville in the semi-finals 9-3.

Most of the boys on the team have pretty high hopes this year, and are aiming for the county championship.

The first game of the season opens in April, but the team practices in the gym till the weather breaks.

The returning lettermen are as follows: Mark McQuillin, Terry White, Larry Kissel, Hal Walter, and John Wachtmann.

The Delta Junior High Squad had an exceptional season this year, losing only three of their thirteen games.

The most exciting game of the season was their game with Napoleon. Although Delta ended up on the short end, they played a close game, losing in the final seconds by only two points, 25-23.

In the NWOAL Tourney, they lost the championship game to Napoleon 41-30.

Individual scoring honors went to Jerry Robinson and Tom Wiley.

The team and their Coach, Mr. Adkins, deserve a lot of credit for their fine season.
